KCK CHAMBER BOARD OF DIRECTORS VOTE TO SUPPORT THE GREATER KC CHAMBER'S 'A BETTER KCI' CAMPAIGN

Kansas City, KS – The Kansas City Kansas Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors unanimously voted at a recent meeting to support the Greater Kansas City Chamber of Commerce's "A Better KCI" campaign.

"The mission of the KCK Chamber of Commerce is to enhance and create opportunities in Wyandotte County which build a quality community to live, work and conduct business," said KCK Chamber President and CEO Daniel Silva. "A Better KCI' is crucial for a better KC region, and will unquestionably impact the economic viability and future success of businesses in our community."

In order to keep up with the growing demands of sustaining success and building momentum in Kansas City, 'A Better KCI' is essential, and is at no cost to Missouri taxpayers. Construction costs will be funded entirely by revenue generated at the airport by people who use it, including out of town travelers. In addition, a new airport means thousands of new jobs in the region that are projected to produce more than $1 billion in economic impact.

"The KCK Chamber Board of Directors feels strongly that a new airport is vital to economic development and growth of our region," said Valerie Mussett, general manager of Design Mechanical, Inc. and Chair of the KCK Chamber Board of Directors. "Our organization is proud to support our regional partners at the Greater KC Chamber of Commerce and believe that voting yes for 'A Better KCI' next Tuesday means a brighter future for Kansas City as a whole."
